CONDUCT

To foster a safe and healthy environment for the WAYA community, a high degree of social maturity and professionalism is expected of each student, including a strong willingness to work together and respect for the feelings of others. Students are to exhibit exemplary behavior both musically and socially. They are expected to be leaders in performance and chamber music and role models in discipline. WAYA reserves the right to dismiss any student who is in violation of WAYA rules, California State and/or Federal law, or Department of Health regulations. There will be no refunds given to dismissed students. Students are not allowed to leave campus without parental or faculty supervision. Cellphone use is prohibited during any music classes or performances.

AGREEMENT / SIGNATURE

I agree that my child and I will abide by, and will comply with, the conduct of Westmont Academy for Young Artists as listed above. My child has my permission to engage in all prescribed activities and events. I hereby release Westmont Academy for Young Artists, Westmont College, and all employees, faculty and administrators from any legal responsibility in connection to any injuries, accidents or sickness that might occur to me or my child, during the course of the program.
